

MICHELLE RODRIGUEZ DOMINATES ALL OTHER CANDIDATES IN FUNDRAISING IN AD 53

Mother of deputy sheriff, firefighter and healthcare worker has raised $222,000 and has more cash-on-hand than all other candidates combined

(Pomona, CA) Campaign finance reports filed by the July 31, 2023 deadline reveal that Democrat Michelle Rodriguez is dominating all other candidates in both total fundraising and in cash-on-hand.

In fact, Rodriguez has raised more than all other candidates combined with $222,365 and continues to have more cash on hand than all other candidates with $200,387 cash on hand, and zero debt, unlike the others.

Here are the fundraising totals for each:

	Total raised
Michelle Rodriguez	$222,365
Javier Hernandez	$110,979
Robert Torres	$108,619

Here are the cash-on-hand totals:

	Cash-on-hand
Michelle Rodriguez	$200,387
Hernandez/Torres combined	$181,409

Rodriguez, who is a member of the California POST Commission, focused on improving law enforcement training, has direct experience in the 53rd district working in health care and our schools, and is a mother and grandmother. She and her husband, Assemblymember Freddie Rodriguez, raised their four children in Pomona with an emphasis on public service, leading them to pursue careers in health care and as first responders.
